Another Abſtract from the Coralban Manuſcript. *

MUCH about the Detection of the Bootiſalian Conſpiracy, a heavy Misfortune befel the Coralbans. The Clareth of the Cambrine, who was the People's Darling, and the earthly God of Liberty in whom center'd every ſublunar patriot Wiſh in Coralbano, fell ſick & died! The Phaepatri were inconſolable, and the whole Nation mourned.

But tho' this was the moſt afflicting Event to all good Coralbans, it proved the luckieſt to the Bootiſali. As Goodneſs will ever ſtand oppoſed by Evil, and a bad Man be an Enemy to a good one; ſo are there Times propitious to either: The good Man rejoices in the Proſperity, the wicked one hopes to find his Account in the Adverſity, of the Public.—Hence the Bootiſali, altho' detected in the very Act of Treaſon, eſcaped their due Puniſhment; for, as they had laid a very extended Influence in the Corruption of the Gaderime, and the Seduction of the Servants and —— of the Diadelohim, it was dangerous to give the Traitors up to impartial Juſtice. The Death of the Clareth had ſo far weakened the Efforts of Liberty, and the Bootiſali ſo puzzled and confounded the Affairs of the Public, that, added to the Clemency of the Diadelohim, it was found altogether expedient, rather to temporize with, than to puniſh, the Delinquents.

"To make this the plainer, it muſt be obſerved, that, after ſeveral Examinations, (ſo well had they previouſly conned their Leſſons) they had almoſt perſuaded the Diadelohim, that their Meeting was not directed to ſubvert his Power, and that it was only meant to ſecure their own Places againſt the Attempts of the Phaepatri, who were always a profane Crew, never eaſy but when in Oppoſition to the Government and their moſt dutiful Adminiſtration. The Sophiſtry, falſe Evidence and Perjury uſed on this Occaſion, threw a Veil over the Truth, created Doubts, and diſconcerted good Senſe. In ſuch a caſe, as good Nature is never wanting where good Senſe predominates, the Diadelohim leaned to the favourable Side of the Queſtion, ſeemed to believe their Defence, while at the ſame time he could not but deſpiſe their mean Anxiety in the Preſervation of their Places, in which (as it appeared reaſonably) he continued ſome of them; but without the leaſt Glimmer of Hope, that they ſhould ever be reſtored to his Confidence. Others had Leave to reſign, being, in this diſtracted Situation of Things, the moſt eligible Method of diſcarding them.

"The lamentable Circumſtances, in which a Prince and People muſt be involved, when the natural Exertion of Juſtice is become dangerous, the preſent Condition of Coralbano will beſt deſcribe. There triumphed Vice, and here Virtue hid her Head! Inſolence, Rapine and Corruption were approved Expedients of the dutiful and excellent Adminiſtration of the Bootiſali: Public Spirit was a Jeſt, and all Things dear and ſacred were mocked by Buffoonery and Ridicule.

"The Temper of the People, during the Bootiſalian Uſurpation, as it is a Symbol of national Degeneracy, is worth remarking; ſince any future Community of Men may obſerve, by Compariſon, whether a Similitude of Manners have rendered them ſuſceptible to the ſame State of Depravity.

"The Bootiſali were themſelves Sportſmen, and, as all ignorant Men are, great Admirers of Novelty. They had ſuch a Diſreliſh for every thing that was natural to their Country, that even their very Pleaſures, as well as Diet, muſt be imported from the Chineſe. As the Wines of France are ſmuggled into England, and Pariſian Faſhions mimicked by the petite Maitres of London; ſuch was the Taſte, or rather Affectation of Taſte, at Coralbano. Tho' they underſtood not perfectly ten Chineſe Words, they would ſit a whole Evening at the Repreſentation of any theatrical Piece ſaid or ſung in that Language: It was a very droll Amuſement for a ſatirical Chineſe at theſe Repreſentations, to obſerve the miſtaken or pretended Affections expreſſed in the Countenance of theſe Coralbans, at particular Incidents of the Play. Sometimes when Laughter was the incited Paſſion, they would give a ſympathizing Sigh, loud enough to be called a Groan, to ſhew how ſenſibly they were affected: Again, when they imagined the moſt intereſting Events were in Agitation, and they ſaw the Buſineſs of the Stage multiply, they would erect their Ears as eagerly as if a Tripeman, or Gambler, were giving their Evidence of Honour before the Shalgaderime; at the ſame Time that they underſtood not a Syllable of the Action, or knew the Province of one ſingle Character in the whole Drama: And it generally happened untoward; for, endeavouring to diſplay the exquiſite Refinement of their Taſte, the impertinent Groſsneſs of their Ignorance would unluckily thruſt itſelf out to malign Obſervation.

"Not alone abſurd were theatrical Performances. Folly found her literary Advocates. There was an irreſiſtible Propenſity towards Laughter in the People. They knew not the Europæan Sarcaſms on the Exceſs of that Paſſion; nor was it neceſſary: The Coralbans were naturally too enlightened a Race not to know the due Bounds of Mirth. But a People, devoted to Indulgence, act againſt Reaſon, Knowlege, and every prudential Maxim. To ſtimulate this laughing Mood (as it co-incided with the Views of the Bootiſali, in weakening the Morals, and diverting the Attention of the People) whole Epic Poems in buffoon Proſe were wrote. Happy the ſcribling Andrew who excelled in theſe jack pudding Works. He was ſure to be made either a Juſtice of Peace, a Commiſſioner, a Penſioner or Hanger-on, or otherwiſe provided for ſuitable to his Humour & extraordinary Talents that way. Had the itinerant Genii of Fairs in England, commonly called Pickle Herrings, taken a Voyage to Coralbano, their Labour would have been amply requited. They were the Men cheriſhed by the Bootiſali, and, if they could not be all Juſtices, they might be ſecondary Stateſmen at leaſt; and he muſt have been a very great Bungler in his Profeſſion, who had not now-and-then a Treaty of Importance entruſted to his Management, or the Pre-election of half a dozen Shah-gaderime committed to his Ingenuity.

Such was the general Folly in the Coralban Metropolis, where the Bootiſalian Influence was more immediate: The more remote a Town, the leſs depraved were it's Inhabitants: The old Spirit of the People retreated into Corners, and the Poſt of Honour almoſt ſeemed a private Station.

"But we ſhall ſoon ſee the Reverſe of all this: The Death of the Clareth brought the Coralbans to a ſober Turn of Thought. During his Life they had little to dread, but their enormous Taxes, (which all his Endeavours could not diminiſh) and therefore they minded little. They meaſured human Occurrences in the ordinary Courſe of Providence. Fututity roſe to Imagination, and they felt there the Succeſſion of the Clareth. They ſaw him aſcend the Throne, his Heart warm in the Affections, his Head replete with the Ideas, of a Patriot King. They ſaw him rebuking Factions, baniſhing Corruption, reſtoring Liberty and confirming Laws. They ſaw —— but, alas! it was but in Viſion.

"Though poignant is the firſt Edge of Grief, a ſmall Uſe (ſo imperfectly tempered is Humanity) generally brings it to the dull Bluntneſs of Indifference:—Sorrow, in common, makes a very ſhort Stay with us: She ſoon drops her Yew, and ſteals unperceived to her oblivious Cell. But not ſo with Coralbani,—at leaſt in the preſent Inſtance. Tho' they had been almoſt converted, by the Arts of Corruption and diſſolute Novelliſts, from a brave, warlike, ingenious People, into a daſtard, effeminate, ſtupid Race of Mortals; yet was not their Infatuation irremedible. A Stroke of Adverſity (ſevere Adverſity it was!) rouſed them from their Lethargy into Conſideration. The Clareth dead! were alarming Sounds. Then (would they exclaim) Liberty where is thy Support?—The Life of an old Man—and thou falleſt a Prey to watchful Uſurpation.—Alas! what can ſave the ſweet Infant from barbarous Flattery?—Who, the great Sire gone, will give the honeſt Precept?—Not the Bootiſali.

"In ſuch like Exclamations did the Coralbans expreſs their Loſs of the Clareth. Adverſity has been called the School of Virtue, and not without ſtricteſt Propriety. Grief purges the Mind, and mends the Heart. A more notable Inſtance of this could not be produced, than in the Regeneration (it may almoſt be called) of the Coralbani.

"Heterogeneous Parts in natural Philoſophy are thoſe which cannot mix, and become, as it were, uni-creſcent. But thoſe Parts are not found only in Nature, they are producible by Art, as appears by various Experiments in the political Furnace. Hence have been ſeen unnatural Alliances, aukward Coalitions, treacherous Miniſters, and as treacherous Commanders. Hence too, in the preſent caſe, will appear another Inſtance of the Heterogenity of good and bad Men.

"When the Coralbani had employed many Months in uninterrupted Lamentations, and looked forward on the diſmal Proſpect their Country preſented, they ſhuddered at the Sight! They ſaw Dangers, but ſaw like Men determined to avert them. They were reſolved to baniſh the dreadful Apprehenſions the late Behaviour of the Bootiſali had given them, by putting it out of their Power to give any more. The moſt diſtinguiſhed of the Phaepatri, the Coralbans perceived was near the royal Perſon. They caſt their Eyes on him as their Advocate, and, having drawn up a Petition of Redreſs, they gave it him to preſent to the Diadelohim, enjoining him to enforce, with all his Eloquence, the Execution of it.

[The exact Copy of this Petition would take up at leaſt Ten Papers; as it contains not only Articles of Impeachment againſt the Bootiſali, but a brief Recapitulation of all their Blunders, Treaſons, &c. during the Mal-adminiſtration of near Seven Years. Therefore the following are only ſome of the moſt remarkable Particulars:]

I. The Diſhonour they had brought upon the Nation; and their Treaſons againſt your Majeſty's Perſon.

II. Extortions by accumulated Taxes, ſinking the public Money, and immerſing the Nation into irretrievable Poverty, by enhancing her Debts.

III. Robbing the public Creditors by lowering the money'd Intereſt.

IV. Sapping the Foundations of the Conſtitution, in procuring a garbled and corrupt Shalgaderime, to ſupport them in their Uſurpations, and to give their Treaſons the Sanction of Law.

N. B. We humbly pray your Majeſty would be graciouſly pleaſed to diſſolve theſe Bootiſalian Tools, that they may be ſucceeded by honeſter Men.

V. The repeated Inſults they had thrown [illegible] Face of the deceaſed Clareth; and their undue [illegible] tion of his ——

VI. The arming 20,000 of your Majeſty's Subjects, under pretence of ſuppreſſing Rebellions, and rendering the Militia, which is the natural Guard of your Majeſty's Throne and your People's Liberties, thereby contemptible.

" The Conſequence of this glorious Spirit in the People, was, the full Performance of their Requiſitions, in the Baniſhment of the Bootiſali, the diſbanding 18000 of the Chidure or Soldiers, and diſſolving the Shalgaderime who had ſo heinouſly diſobliged their Conſtituents. The Manuſcript hints as if the Odalphai were hanged, but is not certain of the Fact.

" After this, the Bautemi influenced, and Peace, Concord, Harmony, (all that can be wiſhed for on Earth) prevailed in Coralbano."

N. B. Mr. Heark-in is not underſtood.

To the Freeholders of the County of Eſſex.

THE laudable Zeal and Affection Mr. Alderman Gaſcoigne has always expreſſed for the trading and landed Intereſt is fully known. The trouble he took laſt Seſſions relating to, and on behalf of, the Carriers of the Manufacturers' Goods in the different Parts of the Kingdom, while the Bill was depending in Parliament, deſerves the moſt grateful Acknowledgement; and as the Freeholders of the County of Eſſex, have now an Opportunity of ſhewing a diſtinguiſhing Mark of their Reſpect for him, it is to be hoped, they will not omit it, but elect the Alderman Verdurer of the Foreſt of Waltham, he being a Gentleman extremely well qualified to diſcharge ſuch Truſt, in regard he is firmly reſolved, if he ſhall be elected, ſteadily to ſupport the Freeholders' Rights in the Foreſt.

N. B. The Election will be at Rumford on Tueſday next the 23d of July Inſtant.

LONDON.

Tueſday the 13th of Auguſt is appointed by his Majeſty for holding a Chapter at Kenſington Palace of the Moſt Noble Order of the Garter, to elect three Noble Perſons into that Order, viz. Prince Edward, Marquis of Hartington, and the Earl of Lincoln.

Next Monday his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland will review the Train of Artillery at Woolwich, at which it is expected there will be his Majeſty and his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales. There is to be a Proof of the Cannon and Mortars, and the Matroſſes are to go through the compleat Exerciſe of ſmall Arms.

A Royal Proclamation is iſſued out for putting the Laws in Force againſt the Perſons who ſhall make any Counterfeit Half-pence or Farthings, as likewiſe againſt the Perſons who ſhall utter the ſame, knowing them to be counterfeit. The Penalty againſt the Perſons counterfeiting the ſame, or any Perſon or Perſons aiding or aſſiſting therein, is two Years Impriſonment, and to find Security for their good Behaviour for two Years afterwards, and a Reward of Ten Pounds is ordered for the Informer.

Monday died at Windſor Caſtle, his Grace Charles Beauclerk, Duke of St. Albans, Earl of Burford, Governor of Windſor-Caſtle, Maſter Falconer of England, one of the Lords of the Bedchamber to his Majeſty, Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the County of Berks, Principal Regiſter of the Court of Chancery, and a Knight of the moſt Noble Order of the Garter.

The Governors and Guardians of the Foundling Hoſpital have agreed upon a Plan for building a double Wall round the ſaid Houſe, the one to be fifteen Foot, and the other eight Foot high, and to be arched over, and a Terras Walk made upon it for the Conveniency of the Gentlemen and Ladies walking; underneath which will be made Rope Walks, Conveniencies for ſpining of Flax, Hemp, &c. the making of Cordage, Twine, Packthread, for Net, in which excellent Scheme of Induſtry the Boys will be inſtructed by Perſons for that Purpoſe. They have alſo agreed upon a Plan of Building, to erect Shops, Warehouſes, &c. for various Manufactures in Trade in the Nature of the Arts Maſters in Bridewell, wherein ſeveral Apprentices will be allowed them.

We hear from Tunbridge, that Yeſterday 7-Night ——— Betteſworth, Eſq; eldeſt Son of Dr. Betteſworth, Dean of the Arches, had the Misfortune by a Fall down ſtairs, to put out one of his Shoulder Bones; and, for want of proper Aſſiſtance, was obliged to be brought in very great Pain to London the next Day, where it was ſet by Dr. Nicholls; and he is now in a fair Way of Recovery, at his Father's Houſe in Queen-ſquare, Weſtminſter.

A few Days ſince a poor Woman, who lodged in the Maze, Southwark, being in great Want, and unwilling to make her Caſe known, for fear of being ſent to the Pariſh Workhouſe, died with Hunger in her Appartment; and her Daughter being preſent, fell in Fits, and expired ſoon after.

Thurſday about four o'Clock in the Afternoon a Houſe in Adam's Mews, near Groſvenor-ſquare, fell down; occaſioned as 'tis Thought, by ſome Workmen who were repairing the Houſe, digging to make Vaults, which damaged the Foundation, and one of the Men perceiving it give Way, told the reſt of the Workmen, and they had no ſooner got into the Street but the Accident happened.

Some Days ago a Man in good Circumſtances, in Windmill-ſtreet was found hanging in a private Room, where he had retired for that Purpoſe. He had been for ſome Time under the Dominion of the furious Paſſion of Jealouſy, which hurried him on to this impious Perpetration. When his Wife ſaw him, ſhe fell upon his Body, and, in the moſt paſſionate Manner aſſerted her Innocence. This deplorable Circumſtance had ſo violent an Effect upon her, that ſhe has ſince behaved with all the Impetuoſity of a Perſon diſtracted.

Tueſday Morning a Man and his Wife, near May Fair, having ſome Words together, ſhe told him ſhe was determined to be completely revenged on him, and immediately went up ſtairs into an empty Garret, in the Houſe where they lodged, and with the Strings of her Apron hanged herſelf: The Husband fearful of what her turbulent and wicked Diſpoſition might prompt her to, followed her, and ſeeing her in that Condition, cut the Strings and in a little Time ſhe came to herſelf. It ſeems the Husband enjoys an Annuity of 16 l. a Year for the Life of his Wife, and that it has been her daily Practice to threaten him with deſtroying herſelf to deprive him of that Income.

On Monday laſt a Review was made on Woolwich Warren, of four Companies of the Regiment of Artillery, by Col. Balfour, who gave them great Applauſe for their genteel Behaviour and compleat Exerciſe; but on their Return from the Review an unhappy Accident happened to a Matroſs who had preſerved ſome Cartridges, which a Perſon unheppily ſet Fire to, by which Accident the whole Train went off, and ſhot out the Eye of Mr. Eyre, an Attendant, and very much hurt a Bombardier and two others.

Laſt Week an Iriſh Haymaker having ſome Words with his Wife at Hildey in Eſſex, in his Paſſion ran the Prongs of his Fork into her Belly about 6 Inches, and killed her directly. He endeavoured to make his Eſcape, but was prevented by ſome other Haymakers, who ſecured him, and carried before Juſtice Gore, who committed him to Chelmsford Jail.

On Monday the 24th of June laſt Mr. Bly, Mayor of Huntington, a Gentleman of about 25 Years of Age, coming for London, in a ſingle Horſe Chaiſe, accompanied by his Partner, near Welwyn the Splintree broke or drew, which frightned the Horſe a little; and Mr. Bly unfortunately jumped out of the Chaiſe, by which he broke his Leg in ſuch a manner, that it was obliged to be cut off in an Hour after the Accident; and on Sunday laſt he was forced to undergo a ſecond Amputation, above the Knee, and was on Sunday ſo ill, that there were no Hopes of his Recovery.

Monday a Bricklayer who was at Work at a Houſe in Great Windmill-ſtreet, fell off a Ladder and was killed on the Spot; the News was carried to his Wife, who came to the Place where he lay dead, which ſo affected her that ſhe has ever ſince been deprived of her Senſes.

Yeſterday 7-Night a Carman and a Duſtman diſputing the Way in Thames-ſtreet, the Carman knocked the Duſt-man down, and fell alſo himſelf, at the ſame Time one of their Carts going on, went over the Duſtman's Legs and broke them, and diſlocated the Carman's Collar Bone.

About a Week ago, a young Gentleman, in order to avoid the Shame conſequent to an enormous Crime, put an End to his Exiſtence by hanging himſelf, he was detected it ſeems, in a Tavern in the Strand, as he was about to commit the beaſtial Sin, was carried to the Round-houſe, and from thence before a Juſtice; but the Evidence not being clear he was diſmiſſed, not without the ſtrongeſt Suſpicion of his being guilty. Whether ſtung by a Conſciouſneſs of the Enormity of his Offence, or ſhock'd by the Conduct of thoſe towards him, who believed him guilty, it cannot be determined.

Some Days ago a Woman who lodged in a Garret in Bond-ſtreet, being taken in Labour, without being able to procure any Aſſiſtance, a Phyſician was ſent for by the People of the Houſe, who came immediately, but abſolutely refuſed to give her the leaſt Help till he was paid for it, or had a Promiſe from the Landlord that he ſhould be paid, notwithſtanding that he ſaw the poor Creature in the utmoſt Agony; which ſo ſhocked a young Lady who lodg'd in the firſt Floor, that ſhe defired he might be diſmiſſed, and ſent immediately for a Phyſician of the firſt Reputation at her own Expence, by which the poor Woman's Life was ſaved, and the young Lady's Character immortalized by this tender Act of Humanity.

Yeſterday 7-Night Mr. Harris, Coachmaker, of Little Queen-ſtreet, Holbourn, with his Wife and two Daughters, were robbed going over Hamſtead Heath, by a ſingle Highwayman, who appeared not to be above twenty Years of Age, dreſſed ie a dark grey Coat, with a Brown Surtout over it. He afterwards ſtopped and robbed another Coach in the ſame Company, in which were Mr. Paſs the Army Taylor, and three young Ladies, from both which Companies he took 4 l. Mr. Harris and Mr. Paſs ſaved their Gold Watches by dropping them in the Coach.

Laſt Week as Mr. Charlton, an old Gentleman who has retired from Buſineſs ſome Years, and lodges at Iſlington, was walking in the Fields in the Evening, between that Place and the Roſemary Branch he was overtaken by two young Fellows that appeared like Gentlemen, who accoſted him in the following Words: Sir, are you not afraid to walk in the Fields by yourſelf, on account of ſo many Robberies dailey committed? To which he replied, No, for he never carried above three Half Crowns or ten Shillings about him, and it would not be worth their while to make any Attempt upon him; on which they paſſed him, and in a few Minutes returned, and bid him deliver his Money; at which unexpected Salutation he was much ſurprized, but gave them his Money; and, after wiſhing him a good Walk, they made off.

Laſt Saturday Mr. Wilkins, of High Wickham was robbed on Rupſley Common of 20 l. by two Fellows well armed; who afterwards robbed another Perſon on the ſaid Common of upwards of 5 l.

Tueſday Morning, between four and five o'Clock as Mr. Hartwell, a Clerk to the Yard at Debtford was coming from thence to Town, he was attacked by a Man and a Woman, going over Lock Field into Newington Road, when the Woman pulled out a Razor and ſwore ſhe would cut his Throat if he would not ſtand and deliver; while the Woman held the Razor to his Throat the Ruffian rifled his Pockets, and took from him his Watch and a Guinea, and Eleven Shillings in Silver, and then made off into Kent-ſtreet Road.

Tueſday a Trial came on at Guildhall, before the Lord Chief Juſtice Lee, wherein a Captain of a Ship, bound to Maryland for Tobacco, was Plaintiff, and an eminent Merchant Defendant, for the Charge of Freightage, which was 2146 l. 0s. 9d. of which upwards of 1900 l. had been paid the Merchant, thinking he had ſatisfied him on a Charge exhibited againſt the Captain, for a Non performance of his Charter Part; when after examining many Evidences on both Sides, and the Opinions of ſeveral Captains, trading to thoſe Parts, the Jury withdrawing ſome Time, returned, and gave a Verdict for the Captain of 140 l. with Coſts.

On Tueſday one of the Staffordſhire Rioters ſtood on the Pillory; and on Wedneſday three others of them ſtood. They were not carried to Newgate, as ſaid in the Papers, but were all carried back to the King's Bench.

Wedneſday the great Match for 50 Guineas at Mortlake between the Gentlemen of the laced Boat and the Quakers, was decided in favour of the latter. They ſtarted exactly at five in the Morning from Weſtminſter Bridge, the Signal being given by the firing of a Gun: They were accompanied by Numbers of Gentlemen in other Boats, and Guns fired as they paſſed at ſeveral Places by the River Side. It was a hard Struggle the Quakers beating them by a few Seconds; they performed it in an Hour and five Minutes.

Another Match at Cricket is made between the ſame Gentlemen who played lately at Newman for a large Sum, which is ſoon to be played at the ſame Place.

A great Match of Cricket is to be played between the Gentlemen of the Neighbourhood of Dartford, and Bromley in Kent, for 1000 Guineas. The firſt Match to be played on Dartford Brent Tueſday the 23d Inſtant. It is ſaid that Eleven of the Twenty two will invite the wining Gentlemen at Newmarket to play with them.

On the 20th of June last, the Bedford Buss belonging to the Society of the Free British Fishery, caught at one Hawl 199 Barrels; which was allowed by the Dutch to be more than ever was known.

They write from Scotland that in three Days time, five or six of the Society's Busses had caught between them 600 Barrels of Herrings; one half of which were arrived at Bremen, and had sold to considerable Advantage, being in greater Requeſt and Eſtimation than moſt of the Dutch. It is remarkable that the Veſſel of the Dutch Buſſes had not caught above one Barrel, whilſt the Engliſh Buſſes had the above mention'd. Other Dutch Buſſes had not caught any; and it was computed, upon the whole, that the Engliſh had caught this Seaſon (ſo far as it has advanced) five Times more in Proportion than the Dutch.

By a Letter from Mapleton in Derbyſhire, we have an Account, that laſt Week died Mrs. Mary Row, Widow, aged 112 Years; her Death was occaſioned by pulling a Codling off a Tree, the Limb of which breaking, fell on her Arm and broke it: It is remarkable, that about two Years ago, ſhe cut a new Set of Teeth.

Letters from Edinburgh adviſe, that the Royal Scots Archers met in Bruntsfield Links, to ſhoot for the Town of Edinburgh's Silver Arrow, when the ſame was gained by George Lockhart, of Carnwarth, Eſq;

By Advice from the Hague we are informed, that the Liquor Oath is like to prove a critical Buſineſs. At Amſterdam the Dealers appearing at the Town-Houſe according to the Placart, it was concluded they came to take the Oath; but they all, except 9, declared, they neither could, nor would take it, that they would ſave the Magiſtrates the Trouble of clapping Padlocks upon their Cellars and Storehouſes, being ready of themſelves to deliver up the Keys; and that they would quit Trade, City and Country, rather than comply: There was, however, no Mob, nor Riot. The Sympathy which has always been obſervable between the two Cities, did not fail on this Occaſion; for at Rotterdam they one and all rejected the Oaths with the ſame Proteſtations; but no Tumult.

They write from Rome that two young Men, purſuant to the Sentence given againſt them by the Tribunal of the Inquiſition, were whipt in that City by the Common Hangman, and afterwards ſent on board the Gallies at Civita Vecchia to be made Slaves during the Remainder of their Lives, for publick blaſpheming the Name of God.

The laſt Letters from Dreſden adviſe, that they are arrived at ſo great a Perfection in their Manufacture of China, that they are going to attempt the making the Equeſtrian and other Statues of Porcelaine as large as the Life; which the Curious are impatient to ſee the ſucceſs of.

We learn by private Letters from Leghorn, that the Corſican Malecontents perceiving that the French Troops were actually making Preparations to quit their Iſland, have had ſeveral private Conferences, in which having framed a pathetic Manifeſto, ſetting forth the Motives of their Conduct, they are determined to eſtabliſh a free Government, conſiſting of a Senate and two Conſuls, who are alſo to act as Generals of their Forces; theſe are Signiors Colonna and Ornano, which looks as if the Troubles in that Iſland would not be quickly over.

According to private Letters from Vienna, the Queen of Hungary have offered the Empreſs Queen three hundred thouſand Florins, by way of Free Gift, which has been declined, and it is thought the Original Sum of one Million two hundred thouſand Florins will be obtained, in Caſe the People's Grievances are redreſſed and their reaſonable Demands granted.

The Indians at Chinecto have got ſeveral more Prizes, a Sloop from Boſton, one Hartbole, Maſter, is taken into their Hands, and after taking out the Goods, they burnt the Veſſel.

Mr. Keith perceiving by the News-Papers, it has been artfully inſinuated, that his Chapel in Maypole is removed lower down, this is to ſatisfy the Public, that the Chapel ſet up in the Sun Tavern One Pair of Stairs, is not Mr. Keith's; but Mr. Keith's Chapel continues where it was before, namely, within Ten Yards of the Great Chapel, where the Marriages are performed by a regular Clergyman for a Guinea as uſual, with a Licence on a Five Shilling Stamp, and Certificate.

The GRAND SPECIFICK
For cleanſing and ſtrengthening the Reins, &c.

A Medicine that hath gained ſo much Credit for theſe many Years it has been publiſhed, that not one of the many Pretenders to cure the like Caſe, has at all hindered the juſt Reputation this firſt, and only Specific for theſe Purpoſes, hath obtained, by its moſt noble Effects; for it doth not only cure ſuch difficult Caſes, which no other Medicine can, but in every ordinary Caſe, one Bottle will do more Good than four that are ſold by any of the Common Pretenders, as has been ſufficiently atteſted by many Perſons of Worth and Reputation, that have found the deſired Effects and declared it to Mr. Sandwell.

For it may certainly be depended on as abſolutely effectual, in carrying off by Urine, ſafely and ſpeedily, all the Remains of pernicious unskilfully prepared Mercurials, Gleets or Weakneſſes through tedious or ill-managed Cures of the Venereal Diſeaſe, or left Pollution, inordinate Coition, &c. Alſo any Weakneſſes of the Veſſels, from Wrenches, Strains, Blows, or Falls, and all other Obſtructions in the Urinary Paſſages, even Stranguries, Ulcers, &c.

It is alſo of ſingular and very extraordinary Efficacy, where there is any Gravel, or even ſmall Stones, Slime, or any other Matter that obſtructs the Urine; bringing all away in a few Times taking, with Safety, as has been happily experienced by great Numbers of both Sexes, and particularly by a Gentleman, whoſe Caſe has ſo often been mentioned in the Advertiſements, by a Certificate of his Cure, who at taking a little of it voided above an Ounce of Gravel, and was cured of an inſupportable Pain about his Loins, &c. by a ſhort continuance of it.

It is a very pleaſant Medicine, and will be found of uncommon Benefit to Mankind, beyond Expectation, which is the Reaſon of its being made public, and to obviate the Ignorance of Pretenders in all the difficult Caſes abovementioned.

One Bottle in moſt Caſes, is ſufficient for a perfect Cure, as you will ſee by the Directions given with it. It is ſold for 7 s. 6 d. the Bottle, at Mr. Sandwell's Toy-ſhop, at the Sign of the Griffin' the Corner of Bucklersbury in the Poultry.

An immediate and never failing Cure for DEAFNESS, Thickneſs of Hearing, Noiſe or Pain in the Ears, &c.

BY a noble Chymical Preparation, the moſt excellent Medicine for this Purpoſe that ever was known, far exceeding all Things ever yet publiſh'd, or made Uſe of; its Virtues are beyond Expreſſion, and cannot be truly known but by Experience: Words come ſhort of its juſt Praiſe.

It is a certain, and, as it were, an inſtant Cure for Deafneſs, Thickneſs of Hearing, Noiſe or Pain in the Ears, from what Cauſe ſoever, or of ever ſo long ſtanding, having cur'd vaſt Numbers of Perſons of both Sexes and all Ages, that have been in a Manner totally deaf, after all other Means and Medicines, external and internal, by Advice, and alſo by Publication, have fail'd, with the greateſt Eaſe and Safety, and to their utmoſt Satisfaction and Wonder; for

In a peculiar Manner, it ſtrengthens, ſoftens and looſens the Drum of the Ear, which by being dry'd or ſhrivell'd, is often the firſt and chief Cauſe of every Complaint of want of Hearing, or of Noiſe or Pain in the Ears, &c to remedy all which, this noble Medicine is a true Specifick that never fails perfectly to cure all poſſibly curable Caſes, after all other Means and Medicines have utterly fail'd, which is more than can be ſaid of any other Thing in the whole World beſides itſelf, Any Cold in the Head, or any Hurt by congeal'd Matter in the Ears, it inſtantly cures.

It is ſold for 3 s. 6 d each Bottle, by the Author's ſpecial Appointment, (Mr Richards being dead) by Mrs. Stephens, a Milliner, at the Sign of the Blue Ball, near the Middle Temple-Gate in Fleet ſtreet; and no where elſe in Eng'and

Dr. R. NELSON, being well known to have made the Cure of Seminal and Genital Imbecilities his chief Study and Practice above thirty Years, does recommend his moſt Noble Cleanſing and Strengthning ELIXIR, which thouſands of People have experienced, to be the only BALSAMICK HEALING RESTORING Medicine in the World,

For Gleets and Weakneſſes,

THE Bane of Virility in the one Sex, and Deſtroyer of Fertility in the other, whether from ill cur'd Venereal Infections (than which nothing is more common) or from inordinate Coition, or Self-Pollution (that curſed School Wickedneſs, which ſpoils all our Youth, by nipping their Manhood in the Bud) or from involuntary Emiſſions a Nights in the Sleep, or in the Day Time upon Stool or with the Urine, or from Falls, Blows, Strains, Wrenches, or the like, which drain and dry up the Seminals, and wither, as it were the Generative Faculties, cauſing Impotency in Men, the Fluor Albus, and Barrenneſs in Women, (or but a weakly, ſickly Offspring if any) and in the long Run (by impoveriſhing the Blood and Spirits) Melancholy, Vapours, Decays of Nature, and Conſumptions.

No Medicine can be more pleaſant to take, nor any Thing upon Earth more effectual for the Purpoſe; for let the Imbecility be ever ſo great, or of ever ſo long ſtanding, and be either in the Parts Spermatick Veſſels, or Back, with Pain, or without, it certainly Cures, by reviving and enriching the Blood and Spirits, comforting, nouriſhing, and repleniſhing the Reins and Seminals, and ſtrengthning and reſtoring the Genital Parts in both Sexes, how much ſoever weakned, rendred cold, or deadned, and bringing them to their natural Force, Warmth, and Vigour, by thickening and fertilizing the Seed which before was thin, wateriſh, or yellowiſh, and conſequently inſufficient, either for Procreation or the Act of it.

All Diſorders of the Urine, as Difficulty in the making or retaining it, or its dribling away, hot or ſmarting, or foul, ſlimy, thready, greaſy or ſlinking, whether from Gravel, Stone, Strangury, or a Venereal Cauſe are likewiſe ſpeedily cured by it, and the Water made to be held as ſtrongly, and yet brought away as freely, eaſily, ſul ſtream'd, and clear as ever.

Price 5 s. a Bottle. Prepared by the abovemid Author, and ſold only) ſealed up with Directions how to take it) at Mr. Corbett's Bookſeller, at Addiſon's Head, oppoſite St. Dunſtan's Church, Fleet-Street, and by Henry Cook, under the Royal-Exchange, aſking only for a 5 s. Bottle of Elixir.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure, even by the very best Method and Medicines in usual Practice, than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses whether occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollutio fui, or any other Cause whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infeeble the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorsalis, or Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumption which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such therefore who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old Stubborn Gleets, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetes, Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe and speedy Cure, which they most assuredly may, by the taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent Balsamick Restrictive Electuary, now published for a general Good, after having for many Years in private Practice been experienced never once to fail of perfectly curing the most Stubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as also all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels and Urinary Passages, which it almost instantly cures, bringing to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent Balsamick Restrictive Electuary is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weakness and Decay of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels, to an immense Degree, insomuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Persons fatigued with Gleets or Seminal Weaknesses of any Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will be most agreeably surprised at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a safe, speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weakness are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been try'd in vain; too much cannot be said in Praise of it, and this all who ever took it for any of the above-mention'd Purposes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten times as much, and is ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads will be complete Master of his own Case, and perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with succeeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the foul Disease is entirely extirpated or not.

Note, This fam'd Balsamic Electuary is now, by the Author's Appointment, to be had only at Mr. Eglinton's (Mr. Radford being deceased) at the Golden Pair of Spectacles, against the East-End of the New Church in the Strand, London. Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot of the Balsamic Electuary. No Letters answer'd, unless Post paid.

The only short and infallible Cure for that reigning Disease the SCURVY and all Scorbutic Humours, tho' arrived in the highest or most inveterate Degree, or of ever so many Years standing, and that without a sensible Evacuation, or the least Purging, which, by an unaccountable Mistake, is Generally advised, altho' always found rather to encrease and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS.

WHICH, without the least Trouble, Confinement, or any Disorder whatever, doat once strike at the true Cause of the Scurvy, and entirely destroy it, and all Scorbuttick Humors and Effects, Root and Branch, so as never to return again, as many Thousands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them in Three Days Time are convinced; for they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, sweeten all the Fluids, cleanse them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blotches, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions or Breakings out, Weakness of the Limbs, languid Heaviness of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies conceal'd under the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Distempers.

And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages, (whence proceed Head-Achs, Vapours, and other Indispositions) no Bitters, nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, insomuch that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy, in all its Shapes and Appearances they allready and directly cure the Green-Sickness in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds, in Young or Old, and almost all other Chronick Diseases which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illnesses.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, strengthen and ease the whole Machine, and as soon as taken, make the Patient pleasantly lightsome, brisk and vigorous to Admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve as well as to procure a sound and healthful State of Body.

But the great Reputation these so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS have so universally gain'd among Persons of all Stations, for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbuttick Humors, and other Chronick Diseases, in such an easy and agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to imitate them, some under the same, and others under other Names; be careful therefore not to be deceived, but be sure to have the Right, which, by the Author's Special Appointment, are to be had, only at the Gentlewoman's at the two blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions.

The So-much Fam'd HYPO-DROPS.

WHICH in a few Days infallibly cure Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men and the Vapours in Women. So as never to return again; be they ever so levere, or of many Years standing, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual; and that by immediately striking at the very Root or true Cause, as well as remedying the Effects, of those perplexing Maladies and all their Variety of Symptoms, by which they mimick, by Turns, almost all the Diseases poor Mortals are afflicted with; and have their Rise from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigestion of Food whence proceed Crudities and flatulent or windy Disorders in the first Passages, ill Fumes, sour Belchings, Cholick and Uneasiness in the Bowels, which Crudities offend the Nerves, and, by Consent of Parts, affect the Head, and produce sometimes Giddiness, Dimness of Sight, confused Thoughts, pertinacious Watchings, troublesome Sleep, Frights, groundless Fears and the deepest Melancholy, with direful Views and terrible Apprehensions; at other times, Fits, flashing Heats, Reachings, Faintness, Lowness and Sinking of Spirits and Palpitation of the Heart, Startings, Tremblings and Twitchings in the Limbs at other Parts, with many convulsive Disorders, sharp Pains, Ex'd or wandering, Pain and Weakness in the Back, and other almost innumerable and grievous Symptoms, which miserably afflict vast Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms in their sharpest Paroxysms, these so much fam'd and most pleasant Drops, (which are Chymically prepar'd from the most valuable Specificks in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the highest Degree of Perfection possible) instantly quell, and at the same time annihilate their real Cause, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, rectifying the Digestion, occasioning laudable Chyle and, of course, good Blood, Plenty of calm, free and cheerful Spirits, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves so that both Cause and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours, are thoroughly removed by them, almost on the Spot, as the many Thousands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured, evince.

Whoever takes them for three Days only, will be sensible they are infallibly to be depended upon for an effectual and lasting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; or cure half therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's at the Cross-Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange, in Cornhill, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions, at large.

For the VENEREAL DISEASE.

THE shortest, safe, and regular Cure, this Day in the World, from the slightest Infection to the most inveterate Degree of it, by a Medicine as pleasant to take, and as easy in its Operation as it is effectual in its Cure; so that the unfortunate Patient gets suddenly and surprizingly well, without Distaste to his Palate, the least Disorder of Body, or any Confinement whatever. This is that great Remedy, now so well known and long experienced to be truly infallible, and is the Grand ANTI-SIPHYLICON that Radcliff and Garth used to say would totally extirpate the Venereal Disease from the Face of the Earth, were it but universally known, and properly taken. Fresh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their cruel attendant Symptoms, it presently cures; and if taken in Time, even prevents their taking Place. It is a safe, gentle, and pleasant Family Purge, even for Children as well as grown Persons, in all Cases where Purging is necessary; nor can the deepest Scurvy, Rheumatism, Gout, Evil, or Leprosy, stand before it, but are pleasantly cured and thoroughly extirpated by it, as well as the highest and most inveterate State of the confirmed Venereal Disease; which, with all its most raging Symptoms, it soon eradicates, restoring Health, Strength, and Vigor to the Body. Those who once take it, will never have Recourse to any Thing else. One Pot in most Cases is sufficient for a Cure.

Price 6s. a Pot, sealed up with a Book of Instructions, by which all Persons may fully understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is rooted out of their Bodies. Note, This Grand Anti Siphylicon is now, by the Author's Appointment, to be had only at Mr. Eglinton's (Mr. Radford being deceased) at the Golden Pair of Spectacles against the East-End of the New Church in the Strand, London. Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot of the Scurvy. No Letters answered unless Post-paid.

To Persons of either Sex,

Afflicted with any Species of the PALSY, or other Nervous Decays.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISEASES, PALSIES, and PARALYTICK DISORDERS so frequent as of late they have been, nor have the usual Remedies been found adequate to those pernicious Distempers: This occasioned a Physician, who employed his Thoughts much concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Elixir peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palsy, and all other Nervous Complaints now reigning, which, after he had experienced on vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and always with surprizing Success even so as infallibly to cure by it the Palsy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Disorders, he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, that so those labouring under these miserable Ailments might know where to meet with a safe and most certain Cure, which it accomplishes in so short a Time, and with such Ease and Pleasure (a few Drops of it being a Dose, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and Bowels) as is almost incredible to relate.

But the taking one Bottle of it only demonstrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Patients soon finds all Numbness, Deadness, and shaking, or Resolution of the Nerves, as well as all convulsive, cramp-like, or spinal Contractions of them, vanish and return no more, and this, though these Diseases have been of many Years standing, and whether occasioned by long Illness, fast Living, hard drinking, or any other Cause; for it performs all that can be wished for in Nervous Cases, creates an Appetite, expells Wind, rectifies the Digestion, occasions laudable Chyle, attenuates the Blood and Juices, causes a free and regular Circulation of 'em thro' the Capillary Vessels, revives and increases the Spirits, warms, comforts, strengthens, and replenishes the Brain and whole Nervous System, hence the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, the Limbs restored to their pristine Steadiness and Strength, and the Palsy and all Paralytick Disorders and Nervous Decays suddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patients themselves, and all about them.

This sovereign and incomparable Elixir is permitted to be sold only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, London, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with printed Directions at large.

The True Cordial QUINTESSENCE of VIPERS the most Noble and Grand Preparation in the whole Materia Medica, for the real, substantial Cure of Impotency in Men, and Barrenness in Women; and is vastly preferable to Viper Wine, or any other Preparation of Vipers whatever, as being replete with the full and whole Virtues of them.

A Few Drops of it only, gives such a generous Warmth, and exceedingly delights the Vital and Animal Spirits, Senses, and Nerves, as soon to shew what it will do upon a little Continuance of it; for it not only promotes, and prompts to a Desire, but also furnishes proper Matter, for the Support and Establishment of a true lasting Inclination and Power.

By this Means it answers the End as well of Food as Physick, nor is there any thing in Nature besides, that can in that Respect come up to it considering that it universally nourishes and restores in all the Declensions of Desire and Vigour, without the least fatiguing the Vessels, or stimulating the Parts, as most other Medicines for these Purposes do: And tho' it be a Maxim in Physick, that strongly nutritious as to want no Assistance that Ways not but it may be allowed, that good Eating and Drinking with it, cannot hurt in some Degree, at least as an Auxiliary contributive to its Efficacy.

Nor does it only furnish Matter and create Desire, but also Power (as it braces up and corroborates the Tresles) and gives a kindly stuck Springiness to the Muscular Fleshy Parts in Men, and corrects, cleanses, and comforts the Uterus, or Womb, in Women, the Lankness and Laxity of the former, and the Foulness, Coldness or Obstruction of the latter, being more the Cause of Impotency, Infertility, in either Sex, and Indifferency or Sterility in the one than any Thing else besides; and that it is Balsamick, and of a Restorative, is confirmed by long Experience, and we have many Instances in Physical Writings, of Persons arriving to a healthful Old Age, as well as recover'd from deplorable Decays and Wasteness, by a continued Use of the common Preparations of Vipers, which this Quintessence, by being of vastly more Efficacy, brings about in a Quarter of the Time, and with the Tenth Part of the Quantity.

Those who but once try it, will so pleasantly experience its nutritive quickening Properties, in exhilerating the Heart, reviving the Spirits, comforting the Vitals, circulating the Juice, and renovating, as it were the whole Man, that they will never be without it; for it is such a present Help, in Time of Need, as that on the taking then but a Dose or two more of it than ordinary, it will so instantaneously animate the dull inactive Spirits, and rouze up and actuate the sluggish enfeebled Faculties in both Sexes, as to excite and capacitate where it could hardly be expected, and at the same Time seldom fails to render that compleat Intercourse Prolifick. Price Half a Guinea the Bottle.

Mr. West, Goldsmith, who us'd to sell these Bottles, being lately dead, it is now Sold only by his Son-in-Law, Mr. Johnson, Baker, at the Seven Stars in Vere Street, Clare-Market, sealed up with Directions (for any Messenger) upon asking for only a Bottle of Quintessence.

For the direct Cure of IMBECILLITY or IMPOTENCY in MEN, whether occasioned, by Pollutio sui, Seminal Weaknesses of any kind, or any other Defect of the Generative Faculties.

And also

Of BARRENNESS in WOMEN, tho' of many Years Continuance, and proceeding from draining Weaknesses, Coldness of Constitution, or any other Cause whatever.

The Famous and Ineffimable

PROLIFICK ELIXIR

The highest, richest, and most powerful Cordial in Nature is recommended,

BEING the only true and Infallible Cure for Impotency in Men and Barrenness in Women, in the Universe, and which once accomplishes without the least Trouble, even after all Remedies have fail'd, as Thousands have Experienced, and that promoting the cheerful Curricle of the Blood and Juices, rallies the Fluids from their languid depressed State, to one more brisk and sparkling; opening all Obstructions, fortifying the Nerves, creasing the Animal Spirits, restoring a Juvenile Bloom, and plentifully replenishing the crispy Fibres of the whole Habit, with generous Warmth and balmy Moisture, and thereby invigorating to such a Degree as not to be imagin'd, but by those who have perienced how exceedingly and suddenly it renovates, and powerfully strengthens all the Animal Faculties, and Generative Powers in both Sexes. It inforces a bright lively Disposition, banishes Melancholy, and inspires Mirth and Gladness of Heart yond Expression.

Abundance of Ladies, who for several Years were deem'd incurably Barren, have after twice taking it, conceived and became Fruitful, and great Numbers of Gentlemen, who by soft living, Strolling, Self Abuses, had render'd themselves incapable of Procreation, have soon been enabled by it to propagate their Species, insomuch that very many illustrious Families, who, for want of Children, were almost inconsolable, are now blest with happy Issue, and are (by Providence) indebted to this Great Medicine for their Heirs.

It rectifies all Disorders of the Stomach, creates an Appetite, cures a good Digestion, and in all Weakness of Body or Decay of Constitution of any Kind, is a most infallible Restorative, and seems to keep back the Effects of Old Age it self.

It is to be taken but a few Drops at a Time, has a very fine Flavour, is pleasant to the Palate, Cordial to the Stomach, and may be had only at the Gentlewoman's at the Two Blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories at 5s. a Bottle, sealed up with printed Directions, and Advice at large.
